

Cotswolds - Wheeling on the Wolds

The popular and lively village of Bourton-on-the-Water is an ideal base from which to discover the many country lanes that cross the rolling Cotswold landscape. From glorious hilltop views to secret wooded valleys, every few miles takes you through another picture postcard village, visiting the small towns of Stow-on-the-Wold, Burford and Northleach and taking you to the edge of the Cotswolds for wonderful views from Broadway Tower. Farm parks and museums tell the recent history of the area and Britain's best Roman villa site is a reminder of earlier inhabitants. 4 day break available.

2 days, 1 night

Ride 1 - Takes you past the charming cottages, manor houses and water mill in the villages of Lower and Upper Slaughter on the way to Stow on the Wold where the handsome stone buildings stand around a market square. On the way back, the ride through Idbury and Church Westcote has some wonderful views across the Oxfordshire Wolds.

Ride 2 - Follows the meandering River Windrush east to the Wychwood. In the little town of Burford, the magnificent high street rises from the river bank and bears witness to the fine buildings that stone and skilled masons made famous. Return through delightful villages such as Little Barrington and Sherborne along the other bank of the Windrush.

This tour will include the rides above, as well as the following ride.

Ride 3 - Ride into the heart of the Cotswolds with sweeping views across unspoilt country that is often missed by visitors. See the rare breeds at The Cotswold Farm Park and then Broadway Tower, a classic English folly built high on the escarpment offering views over twelve counties. Snowhill is one of the most attractive villages in the area and its manor contains a remarkable collection of historic objects. Winding lanes take you through the scenic villages of the Guitings and Naunton on the way back.
